

I am a satellite radio customer and am astounded that restricting the use of weather information is even being considered. It is interesting that the broadcasters are trying to restrict content when they are constantly rying to expand what they can broadcast. The First Amendment is supposed to apply to all not just the NAB.